

King George IV

Source: Deanta

March

Part A

Part A consists of four staves of music in 4/4 time. The first staff begins with an Am chord and ends with a G chord. The second and fourth staves begin with Am and end with Em. The third staff begins with Am and ends with G. The melody is primarily composed of quarter and eighth notes.

Part B

Part B consists of four staves of music in 4/4 time. The first staff begins with Am and D, and ends with G. The second staff begins with Am and Dsus, and ends with Em. The third staff begins with Am and D, and ends with G. The fourth staff begins with D and G, and ends with G. The melody includes some chromatic movement and rests.