The directors shall not refuse to register any transfer of any shares or interest in shares other than in accordance with this article or with regulation 24. No shares and no interest in shares shall be transferred to any infant, person in bankruptcy during their bankruptcy, or person of unsound mind and the directors shall refuse to register any such transfer.

6. PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS

Quorum at adjourned meeting

If a quorum is not present at any adjourned meeting as is referred to in regulation 41, then, provided that the member present holds not fewer than 75% in nominal value of the shares of the Company in issue, any resolution agreed to by such member shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been passed unanimously at a general meeting of the Company duly convened and held.

Written resolution

A resolution in writing may be signed on behalf of a corporation by a director or the secretary thereof or by its duly appointed attorney or duly authorised representative. Regulation 53 shall be extended accordingly. Regulation 53 (as extended) shall apply with necessary changes to resolutions in writing of any class of members of the Company.

Conference telephones

Any member or member's proxy or duly authorised representative (being a corporation) may participate in a general meeting or a meeting of a class of members of the Company by means of conference telephones or similar communications system whereby all those participating in the meeting can hear and address each other. Such participation shall be deemed to constitute presence in person (or by proxy or authorised representative as appropriate) at such meeting for all purposes including that of establishing a quorum. A meeting held by such means shall be deemed to take place where the largest group of participators in number is assembled. In the absence of such a majority the location of the chairman shall be deemed to be the place of the meeting.

Single member

If and for so long as the company has only one member:

- (a) if that member takes any decision which is required to be taken in general meeting or by means of a written resolution, that decision shall be as valid and effectual as if agreed by the Company in general meeting save that this shall not apply to resolutions passed pursuant to sections 303 and 391 of the Act;
- (b) any decision taken by a sole member pursuant to the preceding subparagraph shall be recorded in writing and delivered by that member to the company for entry in the company's minute book;
- (c) if that member is also a director of the company and enters into a contract with the Company (other than a contract entered into in the ordinary course of business), the terms of the contract shall, unless the contract is in writing, be set out in a written memorandum or be recorded in the minutes of the first meeting of the directors following the making up of the contract;

- (f) all provisions of these articles and of Table A shall be construed so as to be consistent with the Company only having one member.

Proxies

An instrument appointing a proxy and the power of attorney or other authority, if any, under which it is signed or a notarially certified copy of that power or authority may be handed to the chairman of the relevant meeting. Regulation 62 shall not invalidate such an instrument.

Regulation 89 shall be modified accordingly.

Any adult person may be appointed or elected as a director whatever may be his age, and no director shall be required to vacate his office by reason of his attaining or having attained the age of seventy years or any other age.

No retirement by rotation

The directors shall not be subject to retirement by rotation and references thereto in regulations 73 to 80 shall be disregarded.

Disqualification and removal of directors

The office of director shall be vacated:

- (a) if any of the events specified in regulation 81 occur;
- (b) if he shall in writing offer to resign and the directors shall resolve to accept such offer;
- (c) if he becomes incapable by reason of illness or injury of managing and administering his property and affairs; or
- (d) if he shall be removed from office by notice in writing signed either by all his co-directors (being at least two in number) [or by a member or members holding 75% or more of the voting rights in the Company], but so that if the director holds an appointment to an executive office which thereby automatically determines such removal shall be deemed an act of the Company and shall have effect without prejudice to any claim for damages for breach of any contract of service between him and the Company.

Remuneration of directors

Any director who serves on any committee, or who otherwise performs services which in the opinion of the Directors are outside the scope of the ordinary duties of a director, may be paid such extra remuneration by way of salary, commission or otherwise or may receive such other benefits as the directors may determine. Regulation 82 shall be extended accordingly.

Directors' interests

A director may (and any firm or company of which he is a partner or member or director may) act in a professional capacity for the Company or any body corporate in which the Company is in any way interested subject to disclosure of interest in terms of regulation 85.

Such participation shall be deemed to constitute presence in person at such meeting for all purposes including that of establishing a quorum. A meeting held by such means shall be deemed to take place where the largest group of participators in number is assembled. In the absence of such a majority the location of the chairman shall be deemed to be the place of the meeting.

9. DIRECTORS' BORROWING POWERS

The directors may exercise all the powers of the Company to borrow or raise money without limit as to amount and upon such terms and in such manner as they think fit and to grant any mortgage or charge over its undertaking, property and uncalled capital, or any part thereof and subject in the case of any security convertible into shares to section 80 of the Act to issue debentures, debenture stock and other securities, whether outright or as security for any debt, liability or obligation of the Company or of any third party.
