

Get the Facts:

FRED MEYER WAS WRONG to Have Our Union President Arrested

Last week, the store manager at the Hillsboro Fred Meyer had our union president and two other union representatives arrested.

Why? Because they were talking to us, the union members, in the store.

WHY IS FRED MEYER BEING A BULLY?

Under federal law, we have the right to talk to our union reps in our store.

It's an important right—so important that our union president, Dan Clay, put himself on the line to defend it.

Fred Meyer can't keep us from having access to our union representatives.

Does Fred Meyer think that being a bully is good for their relationship with workers and customers?

And arresting our union reps for being in the store where we work—that's wrong, too.

We need to stand up and say 'no' to Fred Meyer's bullying tactics.
We are the union—and we are more powerful when we speak together.
