A paraphrase of Psalm 8

Worship Leader: Blessed are You, Most Holy One, Creator of the Universe,

People: Little children sing choruses about You; they speak Your words in the face of oppression and injustice.

Worship Leader: When I look at your heavens, the work of your fingers, the moon and the stars that you have established, I am in awe: I stand before infinite creation, its boundaries I will never know.

People: What are human beings that you are mindful of them, mortals that you care for them? Yet you have made them a little lower than God, and crowned them with glory and honor.

Worship Leader: You have given us power over the works of your hands; you have put all things under our feet, all sheep and oxen, and also the beasts of the field, the birds of the air, and the fish of the sea, whatever passes along the paths of the sea.

People: You have entrusted us with your whole creation.

Worship Leader: You have given us knowledge and insight. We are aware of you and every work of your hand, and we know that it is good.

All: What else can we do but praise you, and care for what you have made. Blessed are You, Most Holy One, Creator of the Universe.
