This musical score is for two alto saxophones. It begins with an 'Intro' section where the second alto saxophone plays a rhythmic pattern while the first remains silent. Following the intro, the piece enters a 'Verse' section. The lyrics for the verse are: 'brighter but here they with have You seen The night is of'. The score then transitions to a new section starting at measure 11, with lyrics including 'Which leads There's light me enough to believe to see that'. The music consists of six staves of musical notation, with each staff representing an alto saxophone part. The key signature is one flat, and the time signature is common time throughout.
