Petitioner

v.

Deutsche National Bank Holding Trust, Trustee New Century Mortgage Co.
Aronowitz & Ford LLP John and Jane Doe 1-20

Action In the Common Law

Petitioner, Ronald Roy, Hoodenpyle, a native born American, Trustee For the High Chaparral Holding Trust, Darla Jean, Hoodenpyle. ProSe.

Reasons for the Case, Petitioner states as follows:

1. In Reference to the Property located at 2505 Brady Dr, Colorado Springs
Colorado. The above mentioned property was the subject of a Rule 120
Hearing in the El Paso County Courts for failure of payment .
2. On July 17, 2007, The Plaintiff filed a Letter of Credit # RA218053211US
With HomEq Servicing For the discharge of the debt on the above mentioned property.

3. On September 12, 2007, A Notice of Debt satisfaction was sent to the above mentioned Defendant.
4. The Defendant in this case has failed to recognize the Letter of Credit nor has the Defendant complained of the form of instrument used to discharge the debt in a timely manner. Leaving only the acceptance of the tender of the discharge of the debt.
5. The El Paso County Court in Case # 2007CV5527 has failed to allow the Plaintiff Due Process and has failed to recognize the true Legal Character of the Plaintiff.
6. The El Paso County Courts have failed to issue a Final Appeal-able Order so the Plaintiff can seek Due Process in the Colorado State Courts.
7. The Defendant and The El Paso County Courts are failing Constitutional issues under Article 7 of the Constitution for the United States of America.

Therefore the Plaintiff request the United States District Court for the District of Colorado order a stay of Foreclosure of the above mentioned property until such issues can be answered.

Respectfully May 16, 2008
