Phil Lombardi, Clerk
U.S. DISTRICT COURT

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

Plaintiff,¹

Case No. 09-CR-043 JHP

v.

LINDSEY KENT SPRINGER,
OSCAR AMOS STILLEY

Defendant.

MOTION FOR BILL OF PARTICULARS

Lindsey Kent Springer ("Springer"), by limited special appearance, and not a general appearance, request this United States District of Oklahoma Northern Division Court to direct Counsel for the 28 U.S.C. § 1861-1878 United States Policy Grand Jury pursuant to Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure 7(f) to provide certain particulars regarding the "Grand Jury charges" in its indictment dated March 10, 2009.

THE CHARGES ALLEGED

Violation of 18 U.S.C. § 371

Count One charges that beginning on or about January 2000 that Lindsey Kent Springer and Oscar Amos Stilley within the United States District of Oklahoma did unlawfully conspire and agreed together to "defraud the United States" by ¹This is subject to future debate since purportedly a Grand Jury issued the Indictment!

impeding, impairing, obstructing, and defeating, the lawful government functions of the Internal Revenue Service in their effort to ascertain, compute, assess, and collect "federal individual income taxes."

Violation of 26 U.S.C. § 7201

Count Two alleges that beginning in January 2000, Springer willfully attempted to evade "income taxes due and owing" by failing to provide information for "calendar year 2000" "as required by law" and that "upon that 'taxable income' there was a substantial income tax due and owing."

Count Three alleges that beginning in January 1, 2003, Springer willfully attempted to evade "income taxes due and owing" by failing to provide information for "calendar year 2003" "as required by law" and that "upon that 'taxable income' there was a substantial income tax due and owing."

Count Four alleges that beginning in January 1, 2005, Springer willfully attempted to evade "income taxes due and owing" by failing to provide information for "calendar year 2005" "as required by law" and that "upon that 'taxable income' there was a substantial income tax due and owing."

Violation of 26 U.S.C. § 7203

Count Five alleges that Springer had received "gross income" in excess of $ 7,700 during the 365 days of 2002, and was "required by law" on or before April 15, 2003, to make an income tax return to the Internal Revenue Service Center at Austin, Texas, or at Internal Revenue Service in Tulsa, Oklahoma, or as "permitted" by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, "stating specifically the items of his gross income" and that Springer willfully failed "to make any income tax return."

Count Six alleges that Springer had received "gross income" in excess of $15,900 during the 365 days of 2004, and was "required by law" on or before April 15, 2005, to make an income tax return to the Internal Revenue Service Center at Austin, Texas, or at Internal Revenue Service in Tulsa, Oklahoma, or as "permitted" by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, "stating specifically the items of his gross income" and that Springer willfully failed to make any income tax return."

ELEMENTS OF CONSPIRACY

The elements of conspiracy under 18 U.S.C. § 371 are "that (1) the defendant entered into an agreement; (2) the agreement involved a violation of the law; (3) one of the members of the conspiracy committed an overt act; (4) the overt act was in furtherance of the conspiracy's object; and (5) the defendant willfully entered the conspiracy." United States v. Weidner, 437 F.3d 1023, 1033 (10th Cir. 2006). U.S. v. Thompson, 518 F.3d 832 (10th Cir. 2008).

ELEMENTS OF TAX EVASION

"[T]he elements of § 7201 are willfulness[,] the existence of a tax deficiency, . . . and an affirmative act constituting an evasion or attempted evasion of the tax." Sansone v. United States, 380 U. S. 343, 351 (1965). The Courts of Appeals have divided over whether the Government must prove the tax deficiency is "substantial," see United States v. Daniels, 387 F. 3d 636, 640-641, and n. 2 (CA7 2004) (collecting cases); we do not address that issue here. See Boulware v. U.S. 128 S.Ct 1168.

“ The felony offense of willfully attempting to evade taxes is the ‘capstone of a system of sanctions which singly or in combination were calculated to induce prompt and forthright fulfillment of every duty under the income tax law.’ Spies v. United States, 317 U.S. 492, 497, 63 S.Ct. 364, 367, 87 L.Ed. 418 (1943). To obtain a conviction for evasion, the government must prove three elements: 1) the existence of a substantial tax liability, 2) willfulness, and 3) an affirmative act constituting an evasion or attempted evasion of the tax. Sansone v. United States, 380 U.S. 343, 351, 85 S.Ct. 1004, 1010, 13 L.Ed.2d 882 (1965); United States v. Payne, 978 F.2d 1177, 1178 (10th Cir. 1992), cert. denied, ___ U.S. ___, 113 S.Ct. 2441, 124 L.Ed.2d 659 (1993); United States v. Swallow, 511 F.2d 514, 519 (10th Cir.), cert. denied, 423 U.S. 845, 96 S.Ct. 82, 46 L.Ed.2d 66 (1975). An affirmative act requires more than the passive failure to file a tax return; rather, it requires a positive act of commission designed to mislead or conceal. Spies, 317 U.S. at 499, 63 S.Ct. at 368; Payne, 978 F.2d at 1178. It is the requirement of an affirmative act that distinguishes the offense of evasion from the misdemeanor offense of willful failure to file a tax return. Sansone, 380 U.S. at 351, 85 S.Ct. at 1010.

ELEMENTS OF WILLFUL FAILURE TO MAKE

Under section 7203 “his misdemeanor requires [proof of] only willfulness and the omission of the required act.” SANSONE v. UNITED STATES, 380 U.S. 343,

351 (1965)
