

Curt Miller High Ball Screen Offense

Table of Contents

1.	Curt Miller (Bowling Green State University)	2
----	--	---

Curt Miller (Bowling Green State University)

Table of Contents

High Ball Screen Offense

3

Curt Miller (Bowling Green State University)

High Ball Screen Offense

Initial Set Up

- 4 splits the mid line, wings are FT line extended
- 5 starts low block on the same side as 1

Wing Drift

- PG drives defender into the screen to get LANE LINE penetration
- PG should try to score and wings hunt should hunt for shots

Note: Need to wing LANE LINE battles

Wing Read 1

- Wing can drift with the ball

Curt Miller (Bowling Green State University)

High Ball Screen Offense

Wing Read 2
- Wing can fill behind the ball

Wing Read 3
- Wing can back cut on defensive over play

Wing Kick Out
- On the wing kick out, the PG cuts to the ball side corner
- 4 rolls to the basket
- 5 flashes to the top of the key

Note: Posts are always opposite high low from each other

Curt Miller (Bowling Green State University)

High Ball Screen Offense

Wing Dribble Out

- The wing dribbles out to get a good angle for the high ball screen
- 5 rolls to the ball side block after setting the high ball screen
- 1 fills wing
- 2 cuts ball side corner on the kick out to the wing

High Post Pass

- 3 reads
 - 1. Shoot
 - 2. High Low Pass
 - 3. Rip and Drive
- 3 looks to hunt for shot

Strong Side Pass

- If the post cannot shoot, drive or make a high low pass, he can pass back to the strong side and then ball screen

Curt Miller (Bowling Green State University)

High Ball Screen Offense

Dribble Hand Off

- If the post cannot shoot, drive, or make a high low pass, he can also dribble hand-off

Weak Side Wing Pass

- If the post passes to the weak side wing the post can

1. Pass and follow

2. Dribble hand-off

- Low post goes opposite

- Top guard cuts through to ball side wing

PG to High Post Pass Flash

- Post can shoot, rip and drive, or look for high low pass or run any of the wing pass options